

Metal Arts Association of Silicon Valley: One Time & Annual Donations

The mission of the Metal Arts Association of Silicon Valley (MAASV) is to promote the education, enthusiasm and art of metal. MAASV welcomes all metal artists of all skill levels and experience. MAASV membership is comprised of metal artists residing in the California counties of Santa Clara and San Mateo. The organization is open to anyone working with metal to express themselves artistically.

DONATION CATEGORIES: One time or annual donations are possible.

ONE TIME DONATIONS are available at the Partner and Patron levels:

- Partner: A person, family, corporation, firm, foundation or other entity that donates monies, real or personal property to the corporation. Partner members do not have voting rights, or the privilege of holding office. Minimum donation to become a patron is five times the individual membership rate.
- Patron: A person, family, corporation, firm, foundation or other entity that donates monies, real or personal property to the corporation. Patron members do not have voting rights, or the privilege of holding office. Minimum donation to become a patron is ten times the individual membership rate.

ANNUAL DONATIONS AND THE DONOR CIRCLE

Making an annual tax deductible donation to MAASV in any amount will help MAASV fulfill our mission to create and sustain innovative educational programming, and will assure our financial strength. Donors providing annual contributions receive pre-event announcements of all corporation events as well as invitations to exclusive events. Donors may attend all MAASV artist presentations free of charge.

To set up a scholarship fund or discuss funding a specific program, please contact the president of MAASV.
